Genoa, September 11.

THE Plague continuing at Marſeilles, this Republick keeps 8000 Men continually under Arms to guard the Coaſts, with Orders to fire on any that ſhall endeavour to land without Bills of Health, to certify that they do not come from Places infected with the Plague, or under Suſpicion; and this Rigour is uſed even againſt the Subjects of the Republick. The like is practiſed by the other States of Italy; and if any are caught endeavouring to get in by Stealth, they are to be puniſhed with Death, without Tryal or Hopes of Pardon.

Berlin, Sept. 17. The King of Pruſſia received laſt Week a Letter from the Emperour, inviting him to ſend a Miniſter to the Congreſs at Brunſwick: And that there may be no further Delay in this Affair, the firſt of November is propoſed by his Imperial Majeſty, to be the Day for Opening the ſaid Congreſs. As this Court intends to conform themſelves to the King of Great Britain's Sentiments on this Occaſion, their Anſwer to the Emperour's Invitation is deferred till His Britannick Majeſty's Reſolution upon it be known. Baron Schonck, the Duke of Wirtemberg's firſt Miniſter, arrived here ſome Days ago, but has not as yet notified his Arrival to any of the foreign Miniſters: His Commiſſion is to ſollicit the King of Pruſſia's Conſent to his Maſter's ſending of a Body of Troops into the Service of Sweden. The Regard ſhewn by the Duke of Wirtemberg for his Pruſſian Majeſty on this Occaſion, is founded on a Treaty by which he is obliged to furniſh a Body of 3000 Men, whenever this Court ſhall think proper to require them; and therefore to prevent any Miſunderſtanding, Baron Schonck is diſpatched hither, previouſly to acquaint his Pruſſian Majeſty with the Engagements the ſaid Duke is entring into, and to ask his Approbation and Conſent.

Hanover, Sept. 9. His Majeſty, Prince Frederick, and the Duke of York, continue in good Health. Count Sparr arrived here Yeſterday from Stockholm: The King of Sweden has added to his Character of Envoy that of Plenipotentiary. Count Gyllenbourg, who was appointed by the Court of Sweden to go to the Congreſs of Brunſwick, is recalled to Stockholm.

Hague, Sept. 24. The States General have publiſhed a Placard, ordering that all Ships coming from the Coaſts of Provence and Languedoc ſhall repair to the Texel or the Vlie, and no where elſe, to perform Quarantain. Almoſt all the Towns and Villages of the Province of Holland having ſet up Companies of Inſurance and Commerce, the City of Amſterdam after having long forborn, has at laſt reſolved to erect a Company of Inſurance, and to give it to the Weſt-India Company. The Commiſſioners named ſome time ago, to examine into the State of the Revenues and Debts of the Province of Holland, are very buiſy in taken the neceſſary Informations: And it is ſaid they will be able to make their Report at the next Meeting of the States. The Directors of the Weſt-India Company are daily expected here, to ſollicit the States General for a ſmall Detachment of Troops, to be employed to retake a Fort on the Coaſt of Africa, which they bought laſt Year of the King of Pruſſia, but is ſtill in the Poſſeſſion of the Moors, who were Maſters of it at the Time of the Sale.
